

EAGLE NEWSLETTER

MAY 2008

St. John the Divine wrote the Book of Revelations. Beautiful beaches were also enjoyed as were shopping and good food.

Visit the Longaberger Basket company see how these baskets are made and if you want make your own basket and have it signed by a family member. The afternoon will be a canal boat ride down a 1 1/2 mile restored portion of the Ohio-Erie Canal. This boat is powered by two Belgian horses. There are cruises and then there are cruises.

Spring has come at last!! Now is the time to mow, plant and enjoy the sunshine. The winter has gone on for a long time and I am sure you are all ready for the spring and summer.

The return on American Airlines was a challenge but that was taken care of and everyone returned home tired but excited about all they enjoyed.

THINGS TO COME

The winter has been a time that many have traveled to warmer climates. A group went to the Panama Canal on a cruise and they say they are ready to cruise again. They saw everything except exotic animals. This was a trip that was educational as the ship went through the canal. There was only a clearance of a foot on each side of the ship and it took about 45 minutes to go through the canal. They also learned about the building of the canal. A great trip from start to finish and good friendships were formed.

LONGABERGER HOMESTEAD:

Take in a food demonstration and do your own hand dipping of chocolates. Take them home with you, if you can keep from eating them on the way!

The other winter trip was to Greece and cruise to the islands in the Mediterranean. This was a trip with so much ancient history. Visits to the Temple of Zeus, the Acropolis, the Trojan War and a stop on the island of Patmos where October 13-18th a motorcoach trip to Ohio! This will be a 5 night, 6 day trip to see what the state of Ohio has to offer. You will also enjoy the fall color as the trees will be turning their golden colors.

This is also a make and take it trip. Have you ever wondered how the little balls are put in the whistles? Now is the time to find out and take one home with you.

A visit to an Amish farm and home and take a leisurely buggy ride through the meadow. At Chalet in the Valley enjoy a cheese fondue tasting party.

This is just a start to the itinerary of what will be offered in this trip. Much to see, good food, hands on experience and a cruise to remember. You can go as a single, couple, triple or quad, so bring your friends and family and go. Deposit of $100.00 per person is due by June 15th. Don't delay call today. There are full itineraries at the banks.
